Appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court The Oceanic and Mercantile steamship companies have appealed to the Supreme Court of the United States the cases which were decided against them in the federal courts of New York, and in which are involved the question whether the collector of customs is justified in refusing clearance papers to vessels which refuse to pay penalties imposed upon them for bringing undesirable aliens into the United States. The case brings into consideration the constitutionality of the resent immigration law in so far as it deals' with this point.

In Memoriam.

DUNBAR. In sad but loving remembrance of my devoted husband, DANIEL DUNBAR, who departed this life eight years ago today, Au-

Never one moment forgotten,
In sorrow I think of you.
Ofttimes to the graveyard I wander,
Flowers to strew with tender care
On the grave of one I shall always remembers,
Who is resting there.

MAZINGER. In loving remembrance of my dear, devoted wife, HELEN MAZINGER, who de-parted this life five years ago today, August 17, 1903. Five years ago today you left me.
Off, sad and lonesome has been my home.
Oh. how often I think of you, dear wife,
And my eyes fill with tears.

WILLIAMS. In loving remembrance of our ba-loved wife and mother, CAROLINE MARIA WILLIAMS, who suddenly departed this life one year ago, August 17, 1907.

Wife, we've been long together,
Through pleasant and through stormy weather,
'Tis hard to part when friends are dear,
Perhaps 'twill cause a sigh or tear.
Then steal away, give little warning.
Say not 'Good night,' but in some brighter clime
Bid me 'Good morning.'
